

Master of Arts in Educational Leadership and Administration

+ Preliminary Administrative Services Credential

Graduate in as little as three semesters with simultaneous masters and credential enrollment!

The Educational Leadership and Administration graduate program and Preliminary Administrative Services Credential prepares credible, relevant leaders with the knowledge and skills to make a significant difference in leading systems for high-impact teaching and learning for students and staff in the Central Valley. Students engage in a unique educational experience, gaining practical field-experience in a cohort model in our partnership districts.

Program graduates are continuously recognized as scholar-practitioners, instructional leaders, and agents of change in K-12 schools and in higher education.

The knowledge and experience of the professors is quite amazing and they will help support you through the program.

- 2019 graduate

Our Graduates Work As

- Principals
- Vice Principals
- Program Directors

Two cohorts are starting in Fall 2021, North Valley at Fresno State and South Valley in Kings Canyon USD. To learn more, attend an information session. www.fresnostate.edu/edleadership

FRESNO STATE[®]

Kremen School of Education and Human Development