

Education Specialist Coaches (Supervisors) Application:

The University Coaches are individuals who are credentialed in the area they are supervising or who have equivalent experience in educator preparation. Coaches are experts in the content area of the candidate being supervised and should have recent professional experiences in school setting where the curriculum aligns with California's adopted content standards and frameworks and the school reflects the diversity of California's student population.

The University Coach has current knowledge in effective supervision approaches such as cognitive coaching, adult learning theory, and current content-specific pedagogy and instructional practice.

Note that University Coaches must have a master's degree.
