Collaborative Works/Projects (with public schools, community agencies, etc.)

San Joaquin Valley Writing Project: This is a project that invites new and seasoned teachers to gain knowledge in incorporating writing across the disciplines. It encourages collaboration amongst teachers throughout the valley. As part of this project, I have been a mentor, presenter, and co-leader of various workshops. I have also assisted teachers in other districts to implement writing into their daily schedule.

Collegial Works/Projects (i.e., grants, articles, conference presentations, etc.)
