

Candace Hilvers

Education and Credentials

National School Nurse Certification - 2009
Professional Clear Administrative Services Credential, 2004
M.S.N. – California State University, Fresno, 1999
Pediatric Nurse Practitioner – California State University, Fresno, 1998
Clear School Nurse Credential – California State University, Fresno, 1987
B.S.N. – Bakersfield State College, 1979
A.A. – College of the Sequoias, 1972
Registered Nurse – College of the Sequoias, 1972

Employment History/ Professional Experience

School Nurse	Fresno County Office of Education Coordinate and Implement School Nurse Services
Program Manager	Tulare County Office of Education, School Health Programs Administer school nursing services to districts in Tulare County Administer the Child Abuse Prevention Project, Community Challenge Grant Project, Nutrition Network for a Healthy California, and Family Service Workers Collaborate with local and state public health officials Coordinate county and regional school nurse workshops Grant writing and implementation in the areas of nutrition, child abuse prevention, teen pregnancy prevention and health occupations
Educator	California State University, Fresno Faculty Community Health Practicum Tulare County Office of Education – Health in Specialized Populations California State University, Fresno School Nurse Credential Program Chapman University – Health Education for Teachers
School Nurse	Tulare County Office of Education Fresno County Office of Education Coordinated and implemented district school nursing services
School Nurse	Farmersville Unified School District Coordinated and implemented school nursing services Coordinated district drug, alcohol, and tobacco prevention program Grant writing and implementation in the areas of drug, alcohol and tobacco use prevention, nutrition Trained and supervised district health aides
Prevention Programs Coordinator	Kings County Office of Education Coordinated county drug, alcohol, and tobacco prevention programs

Highlights of Qualifications

- Thirty seven years experience in working in community health, public schools, pediatrics, and with diverse groups of children and their families
- Advocate for the health of the school community
- Skill in dealing with sensitive populations in a professional, concerned and responsive manner
- Experience in the role of health educator for staff, parents, and students