

NADIA HOOVER

Assistant Professor, Dept. of Literacy, Early, Bilingual, and Special Education
Kremen School of Education and Human Development
California State University, Fresno
nmhoover@mail.fresnostate.edu

Certifications	Administrative Services Credential	2021
	Masters in Spanish Linguistics	2012
	TESOL (Teaching English as a Second Language) Certification	2012
	Multiple Subject Teaching Credential – BCLAD	2008
Education	Anaheim University - Doctor of Education in TESOL (Ed.D.)	2024
	Madera County Office of Education - Bridges to Leadership (PASC)	2016
	California State University of Fresno
	Masters in Spanish Linguistics	2012
	TESOL Certificate	2012
	Multiple Subject Teaching Credential – BCLAD	2007
Work Experience	Fresno Unified School District
	Teacher on Special Assignment-Secondary	2022 – Present
	Collaborated with site administrators and EL Representatives Presented professional development at secondary school sites Designed and presented ELD professional development for K-12 teachers Represented department as a member of the Charter Review Team Presented ELD professional development-New Teacher Pipeline
	Fresno Unified School District
	Vice Principal, Vang Pao Elementary	2020 – 2022
	Planned and coordinated staff professional development Coordinated the English Learner Advisory Committee meetings Evaluated certificated & classified staff Managed student behavior Assigned as the English Learner Site Representative Participated and supported Individualized Educational Plan meetings Coordinated the Student Study Team
	California State University of Fresno
	University Coach-Spanish/Hmong DLI Tk-8th	2021 – Present
	Supported residents on their overall development as future teachers Provided ongoing instructional coaching support TK-8 th Designed professional learning opportunities based on residents' need Collaborated with FUSD teacher mentors and residents on the design and implementation of lessons Collaborated with FUSD Residency Program staff to align support for teacher residents

NADIA HOOVER

Assistant Professor, Dept. of Literacy, Early, Bilingual, and Special Education
Kremen School of Education and Human Development
California State University, Fresno
nmhoover@mail.fresnostate.edu

Fresno Unified School District/English Learner Services Dept.

ELD/DLI Teacher on Special Assignment

2018 – 2020

Coordinated the EL Newcomer Summer Academy
Supported the Spanish Dual Language Immersion Program-Kindergarten, 2nd and 3rd grade
Designed and presented ELD/DLI professional development and follow up with coaching cycles
Assigned as an ELD/DLI Instructional Coach
Supported the DLI Summer School Program

Laton Unified School District

Learning Director

2017 – 2018

Planned and coordinated staff professional development
Coordinated and supervised ELPAC assessment
Coordinated School's SART Process
Coordinated ELAC & SSC
Established SST and PBIS Systems
Evaluated Dual Immersion certificated and classified staff
Supervised and supported the Spanish Dual Language Immersion Program

Madera Unified School District

PLSS – Primary Literacy Support Specialist

2014 – 2017

Designed and presented District Literacy Professional Development
Designed and presented Parent Literacy/Math Nights Workshop
Designed and Coordinated PALS (Parents As Leaders Project)
Assigned as a Student Teacher Instructional Site Coach
Taught Summer School and Migrant Summer School (2nd, 3rd & 4th Grade)

Fresno County Office of Education

Parent Literacy Development (Later PALS) – Curriculum Designer

2012 – 2013

Collaborated, Established Goals & Objectives, and Designed Curriculum

Washington Unified School District

Teacher – Kindergarten

2008 – 2014

Kindergarten Team Leader

Professional Development

Supporting ELs in ELA & Math-Leading with Learning-WestEd 2018 – 2019
Cognitive Coaching – MUSD & FUSD 2015 & 2019
Professional Learning Communities at Work Institute 2017
ELs & Cognitive Rigor 2017
ELs Reclassification 2016
EL Academic Writing Workshop with Dr. Kate Kinsella 2016