Critical Issues Every Year

Every year the Chavez Conference provides cutting edge research and commentary in the area of literacy and educational policy. At it's core, we believe that education is the best when teachers make informed professional decisions that benefit the students.

\(http://chavezconference.us/katrina-traylor/\)

Katrina Traylor is a National Board Certified Teacher who has been working as an educator at June Jordan School for Equity in San Francisco for the past eight years. She has taught Humanities and English Language Development (ELD) at all grade levels, and is passionate about teaching students to be engaged readers of history, literature, and the world around them.
