Announcements

- 1. Student Representative- Janell and Jessica will work together and consult with the Build a Teacher Club to find a new undergraduate Liberal Studies student.
 - 2. Heather Chandler LSRC Secretary – taking over duties following Lorri Brown and Amber Hamm.
 - 3. New Advisors in Liberal Studies – Two new advisors being hired to advise LS students as well as all three basic credential programs. Larry Matthews is no longer advising; Jody Daughtry will continue to do admission interviews.
 - 4. Biology Lecturer – Full time lecturer Julie Constable hired with curriculum background to teach BIO 10 and help redesign the course. She will be invited to be a Lead Faculty for Biology.
- Lead Faculty – We are updating the list to ensure we have a broad representation of faculty teaching the Liberal Studies courses. Part time faculty should be included if they are the primary. Dimitri Rogulkin in OIE can provide a query of who teaches the key courses in LS so that we can identify the faculty.

New Business

- a) SOAP- We need strong committee representation as we move forward in developing the SOAP. Kim or Janell will contact departments to get representatives and content specifications for all programs. We may break in to subcommittees to discuss individual curriculum maps. Committee will move forward to complete Content Specifications. Committee members will complete their areas of curriculum map and bring to next meeting.
