ESSAY PROMPTS

Fresno State's Ed.D. Program strives to prepare engaged scholars and leaders who understand the challenges and opportunities facing California's P-12 schools and districts, as well as community colleges and universities. The following prompts provide applicants an opportunity to share their statement of purpose and responses to three prompts. Please use the space provided below (or an attached page) and limit your responses to no more than one page per prompt. You will paste your response into the Qualtrics Supplemental Application form.

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

Provide a statement of purpose that describes your rationale for pursuing doctoral study in a social-justice oriented program. What are your goals for the program and for applying your learning in your future career as an equity-oriented educational leader? Please include evidence of your interests and experiences in working towards racial justice and educational equity.

PROMPT C

Provide evidence that demonstrates your ability to succeed in a social justice oriented and cohort-based, doctoral program. Your response should describe ways you have given full consideration to the nature of a doctoral program and your ability to devote significant time and attention to doctoral studies. If you're admitted and choose to enroll, what factors might be the biggest challenges you face or what might be the barriers to your success? How do you plan to address or overcome them?
