

Personal Narrative Prompt

Please address your development as a teacher. As you brainstorm ideas for this essay, consider the following questions:

- What has led you to your decision to become a teacher?
- What skills and knowledge do you have that will make you effective in the classroom?
- What skills and knowledge do you still need to develop in order to become a strong teacher?
- What are your plans to further your development?

Your Narrative should be typed in twelve-point font using Times New Roman. Please do not exceed two pages.
